This was Elle's favorite picture of her kids. It's been on her desktop background since she had a computer.

Elle was a woman w good common sense. She represented what a good long-time friend shld be. She was loyal. Elle & my older deceased sister Eilene were good friends from elementary school thru Eilene's death in 2020. Elle grew up as neighbors to us when I was 7 or 8 yrs old. She was in our home a lot. I remember her well. We moved a few times out of Detroit, but Eilene was still in touch w Elle. When Elle stopped driving far distances as a Senior, I'd meet her at restaurants near her and take her to see Eilene, then living in an Assisted Living Memory Care place. I pray Eilene & Elle now meet while Walking in the Valley of Souls.

As a friend of Elle's daughter Stacey, I had the pleasure of knowing her through family gatherings and events. What a beautiful and elegant lady, who greatly loved her family and friends I know she will live on in the memories of those who knew and loved her. Praying for the family.

Elle was a loving, caring, empathic, opinionated and beautiful person, inside and out. Wise as an owl, and always thoughtful in her approach, she will be deeply missed.

With all my love,

Jonathan

Elle was our neighbor back at on Burlingame in Detroit. I was 7&8 yrs old when Elle & my sister Eilene we're good friends. That friendship continued w the 2 when we moved to Oak Park b4 Elle's family moved. I remember Elle being Eilene's best friend for so many years. When my sister was in her 70's she lived in an Assisted Living home w various health conditions. Elle stopped driving far distances. I wld meet her for lunch and take her to see my sister, then w advanced Dementia. Elle loved Eilene. Elle wld call me to see how Eilene was doing. Elle loved my family, myself, my younger sister and my parents when they were alive. She was a true friend w a sweet temperament. I always thought she had good common sense, She was what a true friend shld be to my sister and family. I'll miss her calls to me to ck up on our family. I pray Elle & Eilene will meet in the Valley of Souls.

Elle was a close, loving, supportive & dear friend to my sister Eilene. Their friendship spanned 70 years. She loved my family & spent lots of time growing up at our home as a teen besides her own. We all considered her a part of our family & continued to keep in touch all these years.
Elle was a lovely, vibrant, independent and charitable woman. I will miss her.

Stacey, Tom and family, looking at the pictures of your mom, she had a beautiful, infectious smile. I think Bruce and I only met her once a long time ago. We are so very sorry for your loss. Love Carol & Bruce

Elle was like a sister to us. She cared deeply for those closest to her. She loved even my mother, Jean Scott. In her caring way, she would give her opinion on many different subjects. She will be missed by many.
