“ I had the pleasure of knowing Carole since my young adult years through my dear friendship with her daughter Ellen. Her love and pride in her family as well as her grace, warmth and intelligence were always gifts I admired and learned from. I was always struck with her ability and interest in truly having a one on one conversation no matter how big and festive the occasion. She was caring and observant. Today I am remembering Carole dancing and joyful with family and friends. My heart is with her loved ones.

“ I remember fondly Carole serving dinner to the sailing crew and our spouses. A gracious and wonderful hostess and cook. She always gave4 good advice and could talk knowledgeably about movies. She is missed.
