“ My thoughts are with Nancy, Tracy and Scott at this sad time. The Cole family lived across the street from our family in West Bloomfield. I remember Don out in the yard riding his tractor at a pretty good clip. The kids all played together and his wife, Bernice was a good friend. I was sorry to hear of his passing.

“ That's beautiful, Mom. I know you and Bernice were good friends.

“ I grew up across the street from Don and Bernice Cole..in the 1970's and early 1980's...and I was very close with their children, Nancy, Tracy and Scotty Cole. I was a fixture in their household. I consider the Cole family my extended family. Mr. Cole ( Don ) was a devoted husband to Bernice..and he was a loving and caring Father to his children. He was a successful businessman in the Detroit metropolitan area and provided very well for his family. Mr. Cole always made me feel welcome in his house. He worked so hard for all the years I knew him... He would arrive home late from work, always in a shiny Cadillac...impeccably dressed...and he always had a good attitude...and he was always happy to see his children and his beloved dog, Sheba. He was kind, elegant and professional...however, relaxed and calm-cool-collected. He was a super nice guy...and I shall never forget him. My heart goes out to his children - my extended family - and I know that Don is in a safe and peaceful place now. He deserves peaceful eternity. I am blessed to have known him. Thank you, Christopher Barson
