Comments

“ I first met Merwin when we were both cast the the Richard Rodgers Broadway musical, REX, in 1976. We had a lasting friendship which included dinners at my parents' home in Hamilton, Ontario, meet ups at the Monopoly World Championships in Toronto, a few drinks in New York or wherever our paths crossed. Rest well, my dear friend. Michael John Davis

“ My brother and I are indeed saddened to learn that our dear cousin Merwin recently passed away. Certainly, he will always be part of our cherished family memories. We admire all that he accomplished professionally, with his impressive talent as an actor, and personally, with his caring and supportive regard for family and friends. We especially value how much Merwin knew and shared about our family's history and appreciate the special role he himself played in so many lives. We will truly miss our very kind, gifted, and compassionate cousin Merwin.

“ Merlin and I shared many happy moments together which included in plays at Mumford. I especially enjoyed sharing the cloak room job with him at Adat Shalom. He personified the word Mensch!! Marshall Cohen

“ I remember Merwin coming to our house to play chess with my brother when I was 8 years old. I also remember he and my brother performing in Mumford's high school play, "The Man who came to dinner". He was very kind to me. Rest in Peace.

“ I had the great honor of performing with Merwin at a Hillel show at UCLA in 1959, I got to do some short blackouts and worked with the famous Mel Blank and his son Noel.

He was also the president of Sigma Alfa Mu at the time and one of the most gentle and nicest people I ever had the pleasure of knowing. Makes me so sad that we have lost a talented artist and person.

“ On behalf of the Savident family, over here in the UK, I want to say thank you Merwin for being in our lives. For arguing with Dad about theatre for 60 odd years, for treating me like a Princess every time I came to NYC and spoiling me rotten, for being there for Daniel and Susie when they were going through the worst time in their lives, for you and Barbara surprising Mum on her 60th Birthday and keeping the secret, even though she and Dad had only left you a couple of days before, for producing the Birthday book for Mum's 70th when you made Molly feel so special saying that she had taken all the photos and you were her assistant. You will be missed, especially the box of "Merwin's Toffee" at Christmas. Our thoughts are with Barbara and your loves ones. Romany xxx

“ We are so saddened to hear that Merwin has passed. What I will remember most about this gregarious man, besides his love of family, was his huge smile and enveloping hugs. An immeasurable loss. Our hearts and prayers go out to his family. (Elaine & Mel Erdos)
