“ My dear friend Millie,
Time cannot permit, nor memory cannot forget, the years of countless hours of sharing, of laughter, tears, crazy fun, enduring moments, and a long and loving friendship and with all my family
Meeting Millie at 12 years old brought a special spark of light into my life that has continued through the 60 years of our friendship.
'Silly Millie', 'Milwah', 'Milton Bradley', 'Millicent' have been a few of the special names I have named for her over the years.
Her heartfelt, shining smiles, and loving spirit that she has brought to those who have known her will be forever in our hearts.
Love to you Miss M.
Love and sympathy Dear Jilian, Anthony, AJ, Jeffrey.
Dear Dennis and family.
Dear Chuck and family.

“ I've written a lot of funny notes to Millie over the years. I'm sad to be writing here. She was my friend and I idolized her. We met at WLLZ and became fast friends. Her spirit, her drive and determination made her a success. I played endless practical jokes on her and she loved it. I miss you, my Mills. Rest easy. I rejoice knowing you are full again.

“ Millie was such a kind and beautiful person! During trips with Dennis to Berkley Music Co, Millie would hang out with me at my shop next door while Dennis took care of guitar business. She would tell me stories about her life and family and always interested in knowing more about me and mine. I'm so glad she found any joy at all in visiting me, I was always happy to see her. R.I.P Millie; Carrie Vestrand “ Many condolences to Dennis and the family. It was my pleasure to work alongside Millie at CHUM Radio Detroit. We shared many great radio stories and shared many common friends from the industry. Always vibrant and positive - she'll be missed. Her work with the Detroit Music Awards and helping put together the many Detroit Radio Reunions is especially gratifying and worthy of mention.

Charlie O'Brien - June 12 at 02:17 PM

“ Millie was a great partner in crime, always thinking up something mischievous and fun to do. She knew seemingly everybody on the Detroit music and radio scene, and had the stories to prove it. Sorry for your loss, she was a bright light.

Susan Whitall - June 12 at 06:31 PM

“ My sincere condolences to Dennis and family. I first met Millie when we worked at Motown-Hitsville back in the day. Both being in our late teens, we bonded instantly. How could you not bond with Mille. She embraced you with her effervescent personality, that sunshine smile, and was always ready for the next adventure. Through the years, we met up again in L.A. and Detroit. Even after many years going by, Millie was the one who stayed in touch with our Motown family, arranging reunions, and gathering us together when someone was visiting. These were always such fun times. Millie had a keen insight into people and had the gift of bringing folks together - creating new friendships - just knowing who would enjoy each other's company. She created so many joyous memories that will remain near and evermore dear. Rest in peace my friend. Donna Sekulidis
