Thank you for being able to view the service from home in South Africa. It means a lot to me.

“ Jim and I knew Nancy in Tokyo. When we moved to Detroit in 1986, she generously took care of our cat till we got settled. Our paths diverged, and we lost touch for decades -- until about a year ago when she found me on Facebook. I am very grateful that she did. Her last blog post, The River Appears, was magnificent. I think of it, and of Nancy, often. My condolences to Marty and the rest of her family.

“ I only knew Nancy from a distance but she continued to amaze me with her spirit and zest for life. May she rest in eternal peace and may strength and fond memories carry those near and dear to her ahead.

“ I had an opportunity to work with Nancy , she is a great Leader and humble person. Before leaving Ford she gave me a book "The Other 90%" I just read a few pages during that period and very recently I picked up that book to read again...I was very sad to hear the news...she will always be in my memory and heart. May God bless her soul and give courage to all her family members to pass through this difficult phase of life... Regards Harish Pillai

“ Nancy was a colleague for a year and a friend ever since. Two things I remember about her during Ford days were her courage and integrity. Never shied away from raising issues or seeking resolutions even with heavy head winds.

As person she did many things inspirational. Taking up academic pursuits or running when it was perfectly all right to hang up your boots and relax. It was great she was always writing and sharing her perspectives.

I wish strength for Marty and family to bear this heavy loss.

Here is a photo I took of her when I enjoyed their hospitality in Detroit way back in 2008.

“ I am so sad to hear of Nancy's passing. She was a classmate and roommate in graduate school and we kept in touch all these years, meeting up in Tokyo, New York and Detroit. We also travelled together to Hong Kong and a dude ranch in the Sierra Nevadas (!). Even though in recent years much time would elapse between our get-togethers, whenever we would get together, it would be like old times. I will miss her greatly.

“ Nancy was a warrior fighting her disease. And she had a kind heart. She always brought back souvenirs from her trips to India and elsewhere which were greatly appreciated. She made a new life for herself with Marty and his family. I am so sorry that we have lost her.

“ Met Nancy when she first started attending Congregation Beth Shalom, many years ago. We shared a professional association through her work at Mazda in HR and my work at Ford in recruiting. She selflessly worked hard to find good employment opportunities for her employees at Mazda to move to Ford and I was fortunate to have been able to hire two great people through Nancy's efforts. Later, Nancy went on to work as the Director of HR for Ford in India, while I worked for Ford in Thailand. We got to work together and periodically see each other, culminating with a stay with us in Bangkok by Nancy and Marty. An area rug she brought us from India adorns our living room. A beautiful reminder of the beautiful person she was.

Nancy will be missed.

“ My sincere condolences to Nancy's family.

I met her in grad school and, although we didn't have an opportunity to see each other thereafter, still count her among my dear friends. Honest, incisive, always kind.
