“ I met Norman when I was called to take care of him when he came home from his nursing facility. I was told to be firm with him because he is a stubborn "I get what I want" kind of man. Ironically, however, my wife (who also took care of him) and I instantly fell in love with this guy. Indeed, he is such a loveable person. But what I will remember Norman the most are the miracles we, caregivers, have seen and experienced with him. 3 days after coming home and he was walking up and about, waking to his regular morning schedule, and even having midnight snacks which he would always share with me. I will always associate baklava with Norman as this was our favorite snack. After another three days Norman was back to his old bedroom scaling those stairs with gusto, going up and down with fervor and pride. In less than a week, Norman was transformed from a bent old man to an independent happy person. I took pride when he calls me "buddy boy" until Randee burst my bubble informing me that Norman calls all his male caregivers "buddy boy". Nevertheless, Arly (the other CG) and I respond to this nickname with pride. How can we not? When Norman call me that, with his patented "Norman smile", it just make me want to give everything that he wants. But of course, this drive Randee crazy, then Norman and I both get in trouble. I believe that God made all creatures good but he made Norman wonderful. From the heavens above, Buddy Boy, say a prayer or two for me and my family until we meet again.

“ Randee, I am so blessed to have known your parents through our friendship. I was very fortunate to get to meet both Rochelle and Norman several years ago when you hosted a small gathering at your home around Thanksgiving. Such delightful, interesting, kind and loving people... I see now where you developed many of your wonderful traits. Your father left this world knowing, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that you loved him. God bless and keep you in his care is my prayer. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your friends during this sad time. I am here for you, now and always. Here's to your father's everlasting memory. May he rest in peace. Shalom.

“ Hello, I am Linda (Moe) Armstrong and my companion Mike Fenske. We would like to send our deepest sympathy to Randee and her family. What a great privilege we had to know Norman and Rochelle. Norman would attend the Army Reunions with Rochelle and his wonderful daughter Randee. What a great time as a family we have had. It was so much fun to listen to all the old war stories when these gentleman got together. We will truly miss Norman. We are saying good-bye to our Army family one at a time, but we will continue to keep their children apart of our lives forever. Thank You for letting us be a part of your family too.
Our Love ,we will see you later Norm, Rest in Peace

“ Hello, I am Sandy Hatfield, a friend of Norman and Rochelle. I first met Rochelle at the Holocaust Museum as she shared her story. She invited me for lunch and that began a wonderful friendship with her and her husband, Norman. My husband, David, and I spent many delightful moments in their home, enjoying their wonderful hospitality and lively conversations. We grieved Rochelle's passing and now we are again deeply saddened as we say goodbye to Norman. He holds a special place in my heart. Such a kind and caring man, always sincerely interested in our family and our welfare. He shared books with me and we would discuss history, politics, culture, and more. I still treasure the tidbits of wise counsel he would share along the way. We extend our deepest sympathy to Randee and all of Norman's family. We will surely miss our friend, Norman. Norman, I will never forget you. I will always remember you.

“ Hello, I would like to say that I'm not very good at words when it comes to times like this. I am Robert Hampton a friend of Norman,an his elegant wife Rochelle May the Universal Gods rest their two souls together and they're beautiful daughter Randee.which I would have loved to become more closer to the three of them but time never permitted me to.
I must say my friend Randee is the most loving and caring person for humanity, and don't forget her animals, she calls them her babies. Our Randee this loving human being only comes once in a lifetime she took care of father Norman and made him more than comfortable for his transition to another world.
I'm sure without exception he began every day of his life with gratitude something he felt especially for his daughter Randee. I'm sure he look in the mirror many a times to say thank you God for life, for my body, for my family and love ones, for this day and for the opportunity to be of service Thank you.
