“ First and foremost I would like to send my heartfelt condolences to Denise and Steven. Please know that our loving thoughts embrace you at this difficult time. Bobby was a force of nature. I remember the first time I met Bob. His personality entered the room before he did. My husband, Joel had known Bob and Denise for many years but this was my first time. I was nervous. Denise was not home yet so it was just my husband and I. To say the least I was shaking in my boots. Well, after meeting Bob he literally had me at “hello”. His personality was so engaging and warm. He made me feel at ease and all I had to do was listen. He had the soul of a storyteller and the stories I heard over the years were priceless. Bob was a family man. He loved Denise very much and Steven was the apple of his eye. He will always be watching over you. Bob, you will be sorely missed. Our hearts are broken but I know you’re up in Heaven shaking it up in the best way.

“ Bob loved life. He loved people, animals and had a heart of gold. I will always remember his smile and that infectious laugh.

We had so many great times together that it should be illegal an some probably were. There are far to many wonderful adventure filled stories to mention. Most all would make you laugh aloud. From our early times growing up on Littlefield in Detroit, our crazy teen years on Independence and Camp Tanuga to our trip together cross country in a VW-Bus where we saw the Grand Canyon on the way to LA. We also saw the Northern Lights together on Lake Michigan and on another trip drove his Ford Fairlane to Toronto. The list goes on. It was always an “experience” to be a passenger when Bob was driving (if you know what I mean.) There were good times and some bad but the good times will always outweigh any differences we may have had along the way.

Bob just had a way of engaging a total stranger and opening them up with his charm. He always kept the innocent curiosity of a child and I mean that in the best way.

I was so excited when I heard the news that Denise was pregnant with Steven and Bob was going to be a dad. Bob was so proud of you Steven as is your entire family . Your a great kid who has grown up to be a very talented and smart young man.

Even though you are gone Bob, your spirit will be with me always. There will be a huge void in this world without you.
Rest In Peace brother.
