“ Jack and Marvin, I am so sorry to hear about your father. Your Cincinnati family mourns the loss of a wonderful, loving man. We have wonderful memories of our visits to Detroit and his visits to Cincinnati. We have been remembering him the last few days, and we fondly remember his sense of humor and his extreme love for family. We have lost a great man who never met a stranger. We will greatly miss him, but he will always live in the heart of his family!
