“ Hi ! This is Ida Steuer’s daughter , Sydonia Gajda.
I’m so sorry to hear that Alfred passed away 12/23/23. Please except my condolences.
My mother and Alfred kept each other company by speaking German on the phone, exchanging stories from their past.

“ I had the pleasure of driving Alfred to Cafe Europa many times. I loved hearing all his stories, always told with a hint of good humor.
I’ll miss him.

I had the good fortune to have met Alfred on Zoom.
We belonged to the same Holocaust survivor group.
There we talked English, but when we found out we came from Berlin, he outside of it, I was directly in the middle. We both keenly tried to use our mother language. The words flow without thinking. It was wonderful, he told me about his time in Berlin, his home was in one of the suburbs of Berlin, to his train ride going to Shanghai.
Yes, our telephone visits were a pleasure.
I will miss him very much.
