“ I want to send my condolences over the passing of your brother. I had the pleasure of knowing Allan since I first came to BBYO as staff in 1969, then later when he was an adult as he became very active on the BBYO Board. I also saw Allan at Beth Shalom in Oak Park, and in fact, it was at an evening minyan last fall that I saw him and he told me about the cancer. I am so sorry that I was unable to attend the funeral, as my computer crashed at home and I am only accessing my e-mail at the synagogue today. He was a warm and friendly person, and I remember how active he was when he co-chaired the AZA 50th Anniversary celebration in 1999. We will certainly miss him, and I am glad that I had the opportunity to visit him at the hospital and meet you.

May you always have fond memories of a man who loved you without qualification and who brightened our lives.

“ I am very sorry for your tragic loss. Allan was such a healthy young man when I met him (World Federation of Right-To-Die Society's September Conference in Chicago 2014) it is hard to believe what happened since then – life can be so cruel. I know this must be very hard for you. Try to get strength from the fact he went so peacefully at the end. xxox

“ Very saddened to hear of Allan's passing. I had many good times with Allan. I know he would have enjoyed the funny childhood stories and now he is at peace.

Terry & Wandalee asked me to extend their sympathies.

With Love

“I too feel the heartfelt sorrow of my friend's passing. Allan and I go way back to grade school. We hung out early on and bonded like good brothers, sharing each others' very different lives for over half a century! He and his magnificent family were always about inclusion and love for your fellow man. From high school playing basketball in downtown Windsor with Al and John Clark which comes readily to mind or baseball with the Jewish Youth Group, the tennis, the swim parties and all his girl stories (and I do mean all!) to him being the person who convinced me to go to Business School at a pivotal time in my life. Distance and time apart never seemed to matter until now. Fortunately, I got to see him and hold his hand on Saturday. His life has enriched many of our lives in many ways. Thank you Elaine for being so strong. I'm sorry Caitlin that I can't be there for your Dad's funeral. He sure was proud of you. It is so hard to say goodbye so soon to those special people in our lives but prayers for his peace have been answered.

“ I'm hurt ....as I'm sure we all are. I wanted to do so much with him after we reached a little more success this up coming year. This whole situation is like a bad dream. I have love for Allan. Wish we did more this last year together. I miss you AL BABY.... I'm glad one of us is pain free from now on. I'm just so sorrowful in grief.....Wishing this wasn't how it had to happen.

Thank you Elaine, for all your strength during this transitional period, as I pray for more strength for you and the rest of the family. I can only imagine what your going through. May God continue to bless you Elaine. I know nothing was better to him then having you and Caitlin there by his side!!! Thank you for that!!!!

“ I am so sorry this has happened. It was too much for one body to endure. We hoped and prayed but all that trauma has taken it's toll.

Blessings to you. You have endured so much too.

“ I am so sorry for you loss Elaine. I know what a great sister you have been and you did so much to make Al a happy brother. He bragged about your writing all the time and how much he enjoyed watching the games (tape delayed of course). It was so nice that he had another Tiger fan to share his summers with. He is one of those people who, if I live to be 1,000 I'll never forget and treasure our friendship. When you have a moment, please let me know where & when your sitting shivah. He was a genuine mensch and he's at peace now.
