“ My deepest condolences to Alvin Friedman and his family, some of whom I've met over the years. Alvin was a friend of mine and my late husband Barry since the 1970s. He also was our accountant for some time. He was very much a prince of a man and I regret I cannot be there for the service. I last saw Alvin at Ralph G. Sach's funeral. My love to his entire family.

“ Alvin was not only my accountant for the last fifty or so years but a treasured friend. I respected his keen intelligence in guiding me thru the twists and turns of my financial life but even more so and a real human being with a heart and spirit as big as they get. A man of class, honor, and dignity, his star shined brightly above many others. I'll forever cherish the illuminating friendship we passed together. I consider it a great honor to have had him as a friend.
