“ It is with such heartfelt sadness that we celebrate the wonderful life of Annie.

As I recall in my younger years both Annie & Gayle were role models. Both adventurous, kind and loving sisters and seemingly inseparable or at least to me. Annie gave me my first manicure because she said everyone should try it at least once.

We shared the same Aunt and Uncle, Vickie & Joe. We moved away a long time ago, but often talk of the wonderful seders and holidays that we shared together and the many times Estelle joined us as well.

Shel, Cheryl, Alan and family, Stephen and I send our heartfelt sympathy to you and the extended family.

Annie was the sweetest person I ever knew...

Love,

“ My fondest memory was at the age of 12 sitting on the front porch of Estelle’s and Norm’s home with Annie and I watching the boys go by. She introduced me as her cousin from Beverly Hills, and I was an instant celebrity. Those were the good old days. Although we were 2500 miles apart, she always kept in touch through the holidays.

I will miss you.

I love you, Annie.

“ Dear Cheryl and the whole family,
I was saddened to hear of the passing of Grandma Annie. Although I didn't know her well, I remember her being a sweet, warm, genuine, and very welcoming person. Her smile would light up her entire face. May the memories you have of her bring you comfort.

“ Our beloved Aunty Ann was such a sweet, caring person! I have so many fond memories of her... from when she took me & brothers to "Kiddie Land" before she & Uncle Sheldon even got married, to being able to attend their wedding and she made us included; to getting "happy Birthday" calls and cards; to getting random family photos in the mail; to spending time with her wonderful parents, Mr. & Mrs. German & Gayle & Harvey & family; to baby-sitting Alan and Cheryl and Aunty Ann always having stocked plenty of enjoyable snacks; to keeping her updated on our kids, and so many more! Perhaps this haiku sums it up:

*She was a kind soul.
Our most beloved Aunty Ann.
May she rest in peace*

“ I have very fond memories of Mrs. Adelman. Her son, Alan, was one of my best friends in high school. Although it's been many, many years since I've seen Mrs. Adelman, I have never forgotten how incredibly sweet she was to me. She made a home that felt warm and welcoming and I loved spending time there. My most heartfelt condolences to Alan, Cheryl, Mr. Adelman, and the entire family.
