“ Today on Mother's Day I brought a tribute of flowers from her beloved Lucky. whom she thought of as a son. It decorated an empty earthen mound on her grave

“ All week the weather has been rainy and cold, more like autumn than spring. Yesterday the sky was blue the sun shown. And I buried my beautiful and gentle wife. In death as in life she brought a joy of hope and better things

“ Today I had a graveside ceremony for you my beloved. A part of me was buried with you. Part of the soul that was bonded too you for these years. So young to leave earth-only 40. We were friends first and lovers for 20 years. I have lit an eternal candle for you. We shared and knew what the bond was between us. Even if others did not. It was forged in love and life together and is not broken another night of grieving for you and my loss. Our Lucky and Sunny get groomed tomorrow. I placed a photo of them and us in your casket

“ Barb,
I'm so sorry that you're gone. You will be missed! We laughed together, caused trouble together, and loved life together. You were my rock as teens. My very best friend. I needed you and appreciated the friend you always were to me. I will miss you forever! I love you, best friend!
Love,
Erin

“ Dear Eugene,

I was shocked and saddened to learn of Barbi's sudden passing. When I met you two in Florida years ago she was so effervescent. It was fantastic watching her glide through the lobby as the patrons craned their necks to catch a glimpse. Denise and I send you our best thoughts and prayers.

“ A soft wind came my way like a Sirocco it brought with it a gentle rain and everything bloomed. Flowers did not die, their beauty and wonderful smell nourished me for a long time. But like everything in life the flower is not forever and died. Even if another soft wind never comes again, the soft wind that came my way and made the flower bloom and made me happy

I am so sad to hear the news. I remember her well from our charity degas cruise trip from Singapore to Hong Kong. She was indeed a very beautiful and soft flower and now she is in another dimension. We shall miss her here.

“ Like a bright sun you have shown through cloudy skies and dark days and have warmed my soul. With your love and kindness. Without the sun day would lead to day with no end every in sight. Because of you every day was bright, every thought and every emotion renewed

“ The. Trees branches stand in prayer to the grey clouded sky as moonlight outlines each branch like coral in a calm sea. The air makes a breath puff as I look into the night sky. A distant star flickers almost in rhythm to my heart's beat. The moment of my love of you is frozen in time, but it is only a pause in an eternity of change. Forever in life and death your husband

“ Dear Eugene

It was just brought into my attn. the terrible news about the loss of your wife

Barbara ,

I will never forget the first time I meet her with you in Florida

She was always the highlight of every meeting , young , smart beautiful and charming .

I got to know her better during our Asia trip to HK and later on the cruise

She always had a kind word to say ...

What a great loss Eugene.

I'm truly sorry and sad and wishing her a good life on the other side

And for you the strength and wisdom to continue going and

Remembering her for her beauty and charm

She will definitely be missed

May god be with you during this hard time

And may you find peace and strength

“ Im in a complete shock. Very devastated. She was my role model. I loves her sooo much. I missed her so much. We would stay up all night playing super mario. She would help me with my school essays, we would drive around and look at things, shopping, laugh and just have a good time. I couldnt wait for weekends to spend with her. She would do my hair make up treat me like a princess... then one day.. she moved from birmingham and moved with her boyfriend and since then ive tried so hard to find her never could asked her brother about her never had a response. She promised me she would never leave me and today i received this devistating news and it feels like a nightmare, this cant be real... but it is and i cant stop crying she was just in my dream a few months ago. Please shine down on me and guide me as you always have. Until then my angel you have always been on my mind and now will forever remain in my heart. I love you!
