“ Fond memories of interacting with him long ago at Akiva. A real mensch. A good Jew. No higher achievement is possible. ברוך דיין האמת.

“ Not sure what happened to my (or Sammy Kelman's) comment, so I will try posting it again (to the best of my memory). Barry Eisenberg was a mensch extraordinaire. He was always smiling, positive, and uplifting. He had a great smile, laugh, and sense of humor. He was a proud Torah Jew and supporter of Israel and very active in making the community a better place, whether it was Akiva Hebrew Day School or something else. He was extremely kind and generous. He was also very modest about the many mitzvot he performed to benefit others, which included me. He and his wife had me over for meals on several Jewish holidays, especially Sukkot, and I really enjoyed discussing politics with him as we were of the same political persuasion and he was a very smart guy. I loved the rhinestone-encrusted tallis he wore in recent years, and I told him it reminded me of Elvis (who was also Jewish--google it). I will definitely miss Mr. Eisenberg and very much appreciated the kindness and generosity he and his wife showed me. Zichrono Livrachah.
