RIP Uncle Barry!! I love you so much and I will forever deeply miss you!!!

Nikki Spanos - January 08, 2017 at 12:37 PM

Barry, we love you so much. My brother and friend. You are the kindest, most loving and forgiving of us all. I will strive to be more like you, and I truly hope all of us will. If only we were all as extraordinarily loving as you. That would be so wonderful. I know God has you in his loving arms, and you are with Jenny and Dad once again. You are greatly missed, and forever loved. Your loving encouragement remains evident in us all, and your spirit lives forever. Chuck & Family

“ Truly one of the most creative merchants in downtown Asheville for many years and close friend. I have many memories because of my friendship with Barry. One such memory was an invitation to his father-in-law's birthday celebration at Sunset Ridge Condominiums... I knew his father-in-law from the Uptown Cafe years, but during the celebration I also met Dr. Moog (of Moog Synthesizer fame), and his sister-in-law Penny Patterson (of Koko Gorilla fame). You are missed my brother. Gregory G. Armento

“ My condolences to Sheila and Barry's family - including his Asheville family. I was fortunate to know Barry since the early 80's and enjoyed visiting him down at the shop or, like many others, go to one of the sushi places with him. His love for his craft and how much he enjoyed working with people was wonderful. And he had a special way with animals. My dog Hampton adored him, and every time he heard the roar of a motorcycle outside, he'd dash to the window to see if it was Barry on his Valkyrie. Going back to Asheville for a visit will be bittersweet for me now, but I'll cherish the memories of this beautiful man.

“ Barry was my brother-in-law for 20 years and my friend for many more than that. He was a kind, caring person with never a bad word for anyone. He stuck with the Pattersons through thick and thin, even after Jenny was no longer with us. When he was young he was an extremely handsome man and an excellent dancer, always up for a social occasion. He and Jenny were the hit of many costume balls with their creative costumes. I will miss him even though I did not see him often in the last few years. May you rest in peace Barry. With Love, Peg Patterson

“ *Dear Sheila and Michael,
Barry was a large presence for me and when Dale and I last saw him in 2013 on our visit to Ashville he welcomed both of us with grace and enthusiasm. We spent a large part of a day with him admiring his store and creating together something for each of us.*

I will miss him, his creativity and his wonderful smile.

“ Our beloved brother-in-law Barry...what a uniquely wonderful man. He has had a profound impact on the Patterson family. His relationship with 'Pat' was truly special.....like father and son.

On his motorcycle trip to Alaska, Barry stayed with us for a few days in Vancouver, B.C. He loved the mountains and appreciated the beauty of Nature. We had time to reminisce and there was a lot of laughter.

Talk about style....now he knew how to dress !! Taking after his father it seems. Barry was the only man we know to wear a full length silk kimono when going out for sushi. A sensitive man with great artistic abilities. Chris still has the red, white and blue leather top hat that Barry made for him in 1976.

We absolutely adored him and will only ever think of him with love. He made the world a better place, not only for people but for animals as well.

A life well lived !!

“ Barry was a dear friend of ours since the 80's when we first met here in Asheville. We used to go have sushi once a week. We shared so much laughter and so many good times among friends. I never met a more caring and giving person. He was so supportive of his friends and always ready with a smile and a warm hug. Our family will always have fond memories and love for Barry Olen. Rest in Peace, Barry. Jonathan, Aileen and Jaron Pearlman

“ Sheila and Michael

As you know Barry and I were business partners and friends for 35 + years in Asheville. In the mid-1980's we shared the optimism of what downtown Asheville could be and joined with others to invest both financially and emotionally in this place we were both attracted to ... after we had been through our Woodstock and VW Bus phases ... In 1985, while beginning the rehabilitation of 60 Biltmore, we learned the stinging effect of breathing dust from poison ivy vines growing on the building, a memory we often recalled and laughed about later. Barry was a joy to know and work with - as many have said he was always caring and non-judgemental - traits that would benefit many others today.

Asheville is a much better place due to Barry as well as Jenny. Quite sad for all of us who knew Barry well to imagine our future without him.

“ Dear Sheila and family

We were so saddened to find out the Barry had passed away. We were so blessed to have seen him in North Carolina last summer.

Barry was my first and best friend.

We bought a necklace from Barry which he was so proud of. My wife Vicki wears it almost every day. He will never be forgotten . We very much share in your grief.

“ Dear Auntie Sheila, Uncle Michael, and the rest of the family - On behalf of my mom, dad, Alan and Jill, I wanted to convey our condolences. Uncle Barry (yes, I called him that despite him technically being my cousin) was a sweet man. My mom and dad had the chance to see him last summer and told me how much they enjoyed the visit. We are keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers as you deal with this loss.

With love.

“ Dear Sheila and the rest of Barry's family,

I am so sorry for your loss of Barry. I knew him since Vernor and, though there were gaps, we periodically re-connected. Recently, we did just that and I am grateful. I am deeply saddened by his death and am happy that I knew this sweet caring boy who grew up to be s sweet caring man.

My condolences, Sheila and family. Barry was always a sweet lovely person, from our days at Vernor to college days and, more recently, when we re-connected. I am so sad.

It is with sadness and regret to learn today of Barry's death. He was a sweet, soft and generous soul who welcomed us into the Asheville community nearly forty years ago. He was a head of the development curve in our town and helped shape the cultural nourishment that is amply evident in our community today. His gentle spirit will be greatly missed. I sincerely hope that some ritual celebration will be created for his western North Carolina friends, as he had positive impact in many people's lives.

My family had dinner with Barry Thanksgiving week in Asheville. It was a happy evening at a favorite sushi restaurant of his with. Barry was hoping to visit us in Fort Lauderdale this spring, and we were texting about that just two weeks ago. We will miss him very much.
