Age 69, of North Las Vegas, formerly of Michigan, died March 18, 2021.

Loving son to the late Mollie and the late Aaron Sinkoff Beloved brother of Gordon (Elizabeth Harris) Sinkoff and Brandy Sinco.

Dear uncle of Jason Sinkoff and Adam (Natalie) Sinkoff.

Proud great-uncle of Eloise Sinkoff.

Barry Sinkoff was born on 4/23/1951 in Detroit, MI. He was the first of three children of Mollie and Aaron Sinkoff, descendants of refugees from the first world war. Barry attended Berklee College of Music, and his first job was selling musical instruments, beginning at Grinnells, later at Hohner, and at Suzuki, bringing the joy of music into peoples' lives, particularly children. Later in life, Barry focused on archery and then on trap shooting. He was an expert marksman and even trained with the US Olympic Trap Shooting Team. More than anything else, Barry will be remembered as a loving and dedicated brother, brother-in-law, son, uncle, and great uncle. He took joy in his family and will be sorely missed at future family gatherings. Barry was preceded in death by his parents, Mollie and Aaron Sinkoff, and is survived by brother Gordon Sinkoff (Elizabeth Harris Sinkoff) of Solana Beach, CA, sister Brandy Sinco of Ann Arbor, MI, nephew Jason Sinkoff of Harrisonburg, VA, nephew Adam Sinkoff (Natalie Sinkoff) of Del Mar, CA, and great niece Eloise Sinkoff of Del Mar, CA.

“ I have only good memories of Barry and I regret that we didn't stay in touch. We drove across the country twice! The second time for the move to California with our 5 vehicle caravan. Barry lived in the Coronado Cays and loved entertaining, taking everyone out on his boat. Barry was always kind, smiling, quick witted. He loved his family. Sending caring thoughts and condolences from San Diego.

“ I met Barry on the first day of 7th grade at Clinton Jr. High. I took my seat next to him in a math class for 7th graders, but he looked like he was old enough to be in high school. I told him I think he is in the wrong class because this one is only for 7th graders. He assured me he was (I questioned several times about it that hour). But we became friends ever since. He played guitar and I played drums. We formed bands and played gigs (weddings, Bar Mitzvahs, New Years Eve parties, etc) and were in the Oak Park High School band together as well. We kept in touch all the years after high school, which we both graduated from in 1969. I visited him in California several times after he moved there, and we sailed (he did all the work) on his big sailboat on the Pacific Ocean. When he visited his family in the Detroit area, we would get together or he would drive up to Lansing to see me. We kept in touch with email and phone calls. Barry was an excellent photographer and had an artist's eye when it came to taking his photos. He was also a well-known and accomplished marksman and trap shooter. He was my long-time friend, and I will greatly miss him. May his memory be a blessing.

“ Barry told me a story that he once purchased a 2nd hand guitar that belonged to one of the beatles. I don't know if Barry was a Beatles fan or not, I know he loved music. Classic rock seems to be multi generational, so I played a Beatles song in Barry's memory: "In My Life (Remastered 2009)" on YouTube

Thank you for allowing me to share a Beatles tune and a collective moment of grief with you. Love aunt leslie ❤️

“ I have fond memories of Barry from back at OPHS, primarily in band. Recall him being dedicated to his love of music. Considered him a friend & good guy but lost touch after HS, regrettably. Sorry to learn of his passing. RIP, Barry.
