“ *Dear Rita and Joe;
Sue and I are so sorry for the loss of your mom, Beatrice. Not having known her personally, we can only share that she must have been a very strong, resourcefull, and elegant lady as these attributes are clearly inculcated in you, her daughter. Legacy and genetics. May she rest in peace and her many memories warm your spirits. Alan and Sue Vosko*

“ Soda Batya as she was always known to me welcomed my family with open arms. She always included us and made us feel at home. She was married to my grandmothers brother Harold Perlstein another amazing individual. Pictured below are My mom Dina Ashmann, with Beatrice’s daughter Debra Feldman and my daughter Lila Ashmann.

Bonnie and Morry (whom I know the best from our shared hours at the Fleischman Residence): My most heartfelt expression of condolences to Beatrice's entire family. At the time of this entry I have read the first 8 chapters of her Memoir. Horrific is the only word that can even attempt to describe that record of her experiences during the Holocaust. Here is yet another personal eye-witness account of the tragedies that befell our people under the Nazis and their collaborators. "Sheb'chol dor vador omdim aleynu l'chaloteinu", yet, thanks to G-d, "v'Hakadosh Boruch Hu matzileynu miyadahm!"

Incidentally, I just finished listening to David's magnificent and loving eulogy for his grandmother.

May all of you be comforted amongst the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem!

I did not know Beatrice. I was only a reader of her memoir. Thank you for remembering, Beatrice. You were one tough cookie. Thank you for putting into your book, the truth. You have made a difference.
