“ I am deeply saddened to learn tonight of the passing of this marvelous personality who entertained for Jewish Senior Life residents and others. He was labadick and effervescent and everyone loved to hear his Yiddish, Hebrew, Russian, and English upbeat music. He lightened hearts and happied hearts! He was a gift to all who knew him here on Earth. May his name be praised and may he long be remembered and honored by all who were privileged to know Ben. Baruch Dayan HaEmet.

“Примите наши искренние соболезнования по поводу преждевременного ухода из жизни БЕНА - энергичного человека, талантливого музыканта, с семьёй которого мы почти одновременно, с разницей в две недели, приехали из разных республик бывшего "Союза", но здесь долгое время общались в Еврейском Центре, выступая на многих вечерах, которые без его внимания и участия могли и не состояться. В частности, он очень помог мне в проведении нескольких творческих вечеров с его прекрасным музыкальным сопровождением, за что ему очень благодарны. Огромная потеря для его родных и друзей, нашей общины и всех тех, в жизни которых он оставил хорошие впечатления и важный след... Очень жаль... Светлая память!

“Ben was not a religious man, however he wore a yarmeluke out of Jewish pride, and because he knew his grandparents to be religious people, as were all Jews of their time. I was so proud of him for doing this. Surely he will be rewarded in heaven.

“ I was saddened by Ben's passing. He was a wonderful person! He made so many people happy with his musical talent and his effervescent personality. He was extremely proud of his family and his accomplishments in the United States. There are no fitting words to help fill the void or ease your broken hearts. May time lessen the pain you feel now, as fond memories of Ben gently turn your tears into smiles.--Anna Levin and the whole Levin Family Club.

“ To The Family of Ben: The Talmud teaches us that musicians and other entertainers who bring happiness to people who have challenging lives, are destined to be in a special place in Heaven. Ben was one of those blessed individuals who brought much happiness to the elderly at the Fleischman Residence and other locations of JSL. May his memory be blessed. He will be sorely missed by his many audiences. HaMakom Yenacheym Esschem B'soch She'ar Aveiley Tzion v'Yerushalayim!!

“ Ben was at all of my family’s biggest celebrations, including my bat mitzvah and my wedding. Every huge milestone I had was to the soundtrack of his amazing energy, sweet smile and amazing voice and musical talent! He will be sorely missed and never forgotten! May his memory be a blessing! So so sorry for his loss!

“ Ben made the Oldest Jewish Americans Brunch a success year after year. We looked forward to having him play each and every time. He made the event such a joyous occasion. It was always a pleasure to watch him play, he made every simcha special. He had such a special talent, not only of music, but also in the way he connected to people. May his memory be a blessing.

There are no words! Not only he was part of all of our family celebrations, but he made our Grandparents (WWII Veterans) happy. May 9th will never be the same for them!
