“ Uncle Benny truly loved from the heart. He always was there when you needed him. Besides being a great dad. grandpa, uncle, he was a phenomenal brother especially to my mom. Sunday was a special day at my moms house since thats when Uncle Ben would come visit. When ever he saw something that she would enjoy to eat or have he would bring it on Sunday. Uncle Ben didn't always have an easy road to travel in life. I pray that he now finds happiness and peace with the souls of his loved ones.

“ Benny was my mentor and friend. As a member of the Display Guild, back in the day, we would laugh together and tell "window" stories. Benny will be missed by many especially me. Love to his family. Jackie Van Dox (Stevens)

“ I'm so saddened to learn of Ben's passing. He and my Dad (Sol Lewis), along with Sam Evans, formed a dynamic trio with their company, Displays Unlimited, back in the day. I've known him all my life... and loved running into him at Stage during my visits to Detroit. A wonderful gentleman. I miss him already. My best to his kids and their families. Enjoy all of your wonderful memories. They last forever. --David Lewis

“ May his memory be a blessing to you. I remember sitting at the Piccadilly Deli many nights with Benny, the Oliweks and Dr. Weiss drinking coffee and eating babka. He was always so sweet. They were all like the parents I didn't have. It was a very comforting to know they were there and they knew my dad which made the connection so special.

“ I'm sorry to hear about my cousin Benny. I always ask Linda how he was doing when I saw her at work. He used to come into our business to pick up electrical supplies for his displays. He will be missed. Our condolences to all of the Schector family.

“ To Ben's family.
I used to manage The Pines Apartments when he lived there and saw him a few times after he moved out. He loved to show off all of his antiques and paintings and he loved to talk politics. I absolutely loved him and am heartbroken that he is gone. Please accept my condolences, he was quite the character and he will definitely be missed.
