“Berl shared a dining table with my father Meyer King when they lived at HEchtman together. The 2 of them walked over to Fleischman everyday to see Gertrude and my mother on the 3rd floor. Your father was a wonderful man with a great sense of humor. I am so sorry for your loss.

“My father was a piece of gold. He was hard and tough when the occasion arose, and could be soft and moldable, with compassion and love. He was brilliant, shinny and someone to treasure and hold close. He was precious, special, and extremely valuable. Being with him made you look and feel your best. My father was a piece of gold that will always have a special place in your life and heart.

“My father was a gift that enriched the lives of everyone that he had contact with. In interactions with him he would leave you smarter, kinder, and more grateful for the things that really matter in life. In other words, knowing my father simply made you a more human and caring person.

“ I visited with Berl each Friday during the past 9 months. He always greeted me so warmly. When I learned that Berl and my mother were born in the same year and in the same area of Czechoslovakia, it made these visits even more meaningful. He is even buried about 100 yards from my dear parents so I will be able to visit him whenever I visit them.

I was always amazed at how much Berl was able to relate about his life, his love of travel (with some recommendations for my visit to Arizona), dancing, swimming and so much more. We spoke about the foods he liked, especially from the Hungarian kitchen. I had decided to make a potato kugel for our Rosh Ha'shana dinner so I could bring him some since he was not too enthusiastic about the potato kugel at Fleishman. When our family eats the kugel at our Rosh Ha'shana table, I will certainly think of Berl.

Clearly he loved life and lived it to the fullest, something we can all learn from him.

May you be strengthened by your many memories and may his life be a continuous source of inspiration for all of you.
