“ The Barnett family (Nate, Betty, Ronnie, Alan, and Carol) and our family, the Corman's (Sam, Eva, Lois and Michael) were friends for many years. We shared so many wonderful times and memorable moments together over the years, particularly on our vacations. The laughs were endless and the memories everlasting. Betty and Nate, and my parents, Eva and Sam, spent almost every Saturday night together until the untimely death of my dad in 1972 at age 52. in time, my dear mother, Eva, passed away, as did Nate. And now, Betty has joined her husband and her dear friends. If there really is an afterlife, I'm sure they will be laughing together once again. We will miss Betty, we miss them all.

“ I remember when I was 20 years old, I was standing on the corner of 10 mile and Coolidge with my thumb out hitch hiking. I had very long hair and a long beard but that didn't stop Betty from picking me up. She did not know I was a Bloom. She just said it was my trusting blue eyes that compelled her to pick up a hitchhiker for the first time in her life.

We really got a laugh out of this thru the years eveytime we saw each other.

Betty was a fantastic person with a gentle soul.

Rest in peace Betty

“ I have known Betty ever since the young age of 15 years old and her late husband Nathan as well. I probably spent more time at their home back then, than at my own home. Betty made the best food and her baked goods were more than a treat. I was always content and full when I left for my home. They were the finest, most enjoyable people I've ever met at such a young age. Traveled with them to many wonderful destinations and even saw all the movies for free at the movie theaters. Betty had a great funny personality and she had a kind heart and the fond memories I have of her and Nathan, I will always cherish and keep them close to my heart. They will always hold a special place within me forever.
