“ So sad to hear of Bessie Mittleman's passing. She was a constant fixture in my childhood because their house was the place we all went on Shabbat. I was in Dena's class so I spent a lot of time there, but the other siblings were around and it seemed like we all grew up as extended family of Bessie and Manny. Bessie was a lovely woman, always warm and pleasant and I'd never seen her frazzled at anything going on in the house; she raised a lovely family and my heart goes out to everyone upon her passing. המקום הנחם...

“ What a true Bracha it was to have Mrs. Bessie Mittelman as a friend. She was an extraordinarily special person...always regal, yet humble, warm, inviting and hospitable. Whenever we came by, she would invite us in and ask if we wanted a tea. Her love for family and friends was palpable. It gave her--and us--so much pleasure to tell us about the people and places in her large panoply of family pictures ranging from her childhood to the present.

Mrs. Mittelman ALWAYS cared about, and inquired of, our welfare. She regularly gave beautiful brachos, which we cherished greatly. We felt that her brachos and good wishes always came from a deep place in her ever-kind and giving heart.

Hashem was always an integral part of her being and her life. Rarely would she say something without also stating "G-d willing" or "thank G-d". She also had a highly developed "middah" of "hakoras hatov", always thanking us warmly and profusely for our calls and visits, beyond what we felt was deserved.

Mrs. Mittelman's equally special husband, Manny ZT"L, was also a cherished friend. The enormous power of this exceptional couple, through their "emunah", their love of Hashem and of their fellow man, has left an indelible impression on our hearts, on our community and on Klal Yisroel. It was most gratifying to witness the great "yiddishe nachas" that they both "shepped" from their blee ayin hora wonderful family and all their generations.

Mrs. Mittelman's positive impact on all the "Olamos" was--and will continue to be--profound.

We sorely miss her.

May her memory be for a blessing.

“ My Mother & Father (Mr. Chuck A"H and Mrs. Raiselle Snow) shared a decades long friendship with the Mittelman family. Last week, despite the cold and icy weather, my mother spent Shabbos with us. And despite the cold and icy weather requested that we roll her in a wheelchair all the way to a Kiddush in Oak Park for a great-granddaughter of hers. As was her custom, when staying by us for Shabbos, she always requested us to bring her to see Mrs. Mittelman. And despite the cold and icy weather, on the way back from the Kiddush my mother asked me to bring her to see her friend, Bessie.

She knew Mrs. Mittelman was not doing well, but if the "trissim" were up, she wanted to at least waive to her from the street. After all, she, Mrs. Baum, and Mrs. Mittlelman shared membership in a very exclusive club. The "5 generation club"!

B"H the "trissim" were up and although Mrs. Mittelman had just been wheeled to the Shabbos table, the aide (along with David - who was there like a devoted son) made sure to wheel Mrs. Mittelman back to the window where she saw both of us and waived Good Shabbos. We both thank Hashem (as well as David and the aide) for that last vision of Mrs. Mittelman. T'hai Nishmasa B'rucha.

*David, thank you for sharing these beautiful reflections. I told the story of their last wave - both a hello and goodbye all at once, which occurred the Shabbos before she left us. Our families will always be connected in a special way. Love to you, Chani and your families.
