“ I remember the entire Norman Family most fondly, from those days at Ahavas Achim, be through the general congregation, the USY(Lahav) Chapter that I once was advisor to, as well as the Ahavas Achim Sunday School. So sorry for your family’s loss of Beth. My memories are of some very kind and thoughtful people.

“ Beth was a very special woman. I remember her as a young girl who had the most beautiful smile that would light up a room. As a young woman, her eyes and smile still conveyed love, kindness and patience to her young students. As a youth director, her sensitivity, love and devotion to my children, especially to my daughter, will always be remembered and appreciated. May Ha-Shem take Beth in His arms and always cherish her outer and inner beauty with his love. Beth, I wish you peace of mind, body, and soul.
