My Dear Mom,

Today would have been your 86th birthday. Happy birthday wherever you are out there. I love you so much and miss you every single day.

Please know you will never be forgotten but remembered with nothing but love.

Please tell "daddy" I love him, too, and miss him just as much.

“ I can't believe it will be four years tomorrow since you took your last breath.

I miss you every single day and smile when something reminds me of you and cry as I wish you were here to share it with me. I pray you are happy, pain-free and bugging daddy to death (no pun intended).

I love you my momma...with all of my heart.

xoxo

“ My beautiful mom,

In 3 days it will be 3 years since you've been gone. It's so hard to believe.

I miss you so much it hurts.

One day we will be together again but in the meantime, please beat dad at Take, Rummikub, Gin and whatever else you play as you know how much he hates to lose. Show no mercy! :)

I love you mom...so, so much.

Please give dad a big hug from me and tell him I love him, too.

xoxo

“ My sweet mom...you now have your groom with you and I pray you are both happy and at peace. I can't describe how much I miss you and dad. It's hard to believe that you have been gone almost two years now.

I look forward to seeing you and dad again...one day. In the meantime, not a day goes by that I don't think of you with nothing but love in my heart. I miss you dearly. Your devoted daughter...always.

“ So many memories of this crazy beautiful woman that took place at Oak Beach resorts. She will so dearly missed by all of us who got to share our vacation with her and her family. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family. R.I.P. our friend as you enjoy your happy place.

“ Bev was one of the most wonderful, caring women that I have ever known. When our son, George, began dating her beautiful daughter, Lynn, he was welcomed by Bev and her family without hesitation.

When my husband and I first met Bev and Jer, we were at ease with them immediately also. In fact, Bev and I found out that we had so much in common that we joked that we were "sisters-in-heart" or "sisters from different mothers."

Bev was a beautiful, strong, delightful woman. I always enjoyed the many poems that she wrote, and her wonderful sense of humor.

*We love you, Bev, and you will always be in our thoughts and in our hearts. I truly regret that we didn't have more time to spend together. But, although it hurts to have lost you, I am so happy that your pain and suffering are finally over. You are now at peace resting in God's arms. One day, we will all be together again.
Love,always, Charles and Roz*

“ Today at 3:20 p.m. I held my mom's hand. I told her again how much I loved her and it was okay for her to go. I told her she was going to a beautiful place. I told her we would all be okay and she would be okay, pain-free. I sang her favorite song "You are the Sunshine of my Life" and I improvised with other verses which I think would've made her laugh. I had my head down toward the bed while holding her hand and when I looked up tears were streaming down my mom's face. I gently wiped her eyes and nose, kissed her head, brushed her hair back and at 3:40 p.m. today my mom took her last breath. She is FINALLY at peace, pain-free and playing with all the birdies, squirrels, kittens, puppies and everyone else in Heaven. Words cannot describe my feelings now, but knowing how peaceful she went, compared to the past 13 days, means the world to me. I love you mom. You will always be with me and never forgotten. Lynn

So sorry to hear about my lovely cousin. Though we have lived in different cities for many years, I shall always remember what a sweet, good person dear Bev was.
