Such a priceless tribute to Beverly! Your children are so grown up...omg does time fly. I just learned of her passing whiling trying to reach out to her. Beverly was a beautiful human being. For me she was a very special friend and a mentor. Brilliant at bridge and so caring about so many people. Always felt blessed to have crossed paths with her and hopefully will do so again one day in the hereafter. Much love, Michelle. So sorry also to learn about Jerry, Thelma, and Wally's passing.

So much loss of such very special people. Love, Mickey Walters (RI)

“ Dear Michelle, Ali, Jill and Sam my name is Ellington Summerour and I was her neighbor on Eastbrooke. I am truly sad to hear about her passing since I am just now finding out. She was the most energetic woman, and had so many stories to tell. From seeing her having to be cared for to getting well and not needing help and getting back walking on her own was inspiration. I wish was able to have told her I graduated from Wayne State University. I have been so busy trying to figure things out for myself, hearing some of her advice always helped. I'm sorry it took this long and hope the family are well!

“ Dear Michelle, Ali, Jill and Sam, I knew Aunt Bev my entire life. She was an extravert! She loved to laugh! Aunt Bev saw the humor in situations, and was also able to laugh at herself. There are so many stories filled with humor! She was also a master or grand master at bridge - I don't know the game but I was impressed with her skill level! When it came to her grandchildren, Aunt Bev's eyes and heart sparkled! She was so excited to be a grandma! You three were her gems! How lucky she was to live nearby. During this pandemic, Aunt Bev and I shared TV shows and movies we loved. What else was there to do?! We were stuck in our homes! She was very enthusiastic about the British shows. I like them, too! Through the years, she shared book titles she enjoyed, and wanted to know what I recommended. Her mind was always interesting in learning and experiencing more. When she was younger, my mom helped her out at jewelry shows (she was a jewelry rep). They had a lot of fun in different cities. The two of them could sell the Brooklyn Bridge! Aunt Bev filled her years well. I love you, Aunt Bev. I wish all of you peace of mind. I believe my Dad came and got her and brought her home. Love, Sharon

“ Dear Cousins

There will never be another Beverly. I wish I could be with you, but know that I am there in spirit. I will so miss my phone chats with Beverly and her thoughts and opinions on everything - politics, human behaviour, the best Scotch (Dewar's), her favourite British tv shows and much, much more. How will I know what to read now? So many memories...I hope your memories bring you comfort and time brings you peace. With much love, Risa and Linda xo
