“ I was sadden and pained to hear that Boris had passed away. I worked with Boris, and he always brightened the day when he showed up in the lab with a job. I enjoyed his wit, humor and good spirit. His knowledge and views on the USSR and his personal history gave me insight into how much he'd been through. He was a strong man and I admired him. I have been retired for three years and had lunch with Boris a few times since retiring, I don't remember most lunches that I have had in 68 years, but I remember lunches with Boris, he was unforgettable. He was a good man, and I am sorry for your loss. You have my heart felt condolences.

“ Our heartiest condolences to Mrs. Mezir and the family. May God gives you the strength and patience to bear this great loss, Amin. Boris was one of the beautiful personalities at work who made me feel excited about going to work every day for years. I always preferred to walk by his desk in the morning just to listen him saying, "You are lateeee". We spent lots of time together at work and at lunches where we just laughed and laughed. He made us forget about any worries like they never existed! Boris: We always called you "Boris the Great" and I tell you today that you really are The Greatest!! You will be greatly missed!! But we will always be connected though the prayers. Syed Shaukat and Family - Coworker.

I am very sorry that the man of light Boris has passed away... When leaving, leave the Light! This is more than staying...

It's better than saying goodbye and more important than giving advice...

When leaving, leave the Light - the cold will recede before it!

The light will fill the city...Even if Bac is not there.

*When leaving, leave the Light, like a lighthouse in a foggy sea,
As a medicine against grief, as a greeting to cordiality.*

Someone will say: "Nonsense and nonsense! There is no cure for grief!"

I won't argue with anyone...I'll give you my secret:

When leaving, leave the Light, the Light of love among the gray everyday life,

Like hope: "We will be! We will be!" - at an hour when there is no hope...

When leaving, leave the Light, even if you part,

Even if you don't return, when leaving, leave the Light.

When leaving, turn on the light! He who makes a mistake will come back...

Let your Sun not go out! When leaving, leave the Light...

When you come, bring the Light! The one who is bright is the one who is eternal!

The path with Light is endless... When you come, bring the Light!..
