“ I couldn't have asked for a better father-in-law. I've known Boris since 1993 when I was 14 years old and he has been a second father to me ever since. His grandson, Dylan (2 years old), and granddaughter, Rose (10 days old), will have no vivid memory of Boris, but I will be sure to keep his memory alive with photos and we will be sure to share stories of our special times together. We will all miss him terribly but I am thankful for the many years we've spent together as a family and his memory will be cherished always.
