“ Brenda you were more than just my coworker...you were my neighbor...my dog sitter...most importantly my friend. A second mother giving advice and telling me when I was wrong. We lost touch and in a small blessing in disguise became reunited at treatment in Berkley. You told me you were tired. No more. You are healthy once again...reunited with your parents. Eating all the deli you can until your hearts content. RIP my friend. Allie

“ Brenda was my close friend for 50 years. She was part of my entire family, here and away. We enjoyed lots of fun times, she was an excellent cook and loved it. Best potato salad and stuffing for the turkey. Shared all our holidays, baby sat for Toni. She was loved by all and will be missed. Her last year and a half was really tough and took its toll. We'll think of her often and will miss her. Love From all of us, barbara
