“ I am her grandson, Noah, I was 6 when she died a few days into 1st grade. I had got off the bus at my cousins house as I usually did. I saw my mom’s car on the driveway. I walked up and saw my mom,dad and sister Sophia. As I walked up my mom told me that my grandma died. I never got to say goodbye.

“ I met Carol standing outside of Macys (our favorite place) standing in line to wait for the doors to open. She started talking to me and asked if I was from the Midwest and I told her that I was from Detroit and she said so am I. We became instant friends. I knew that she was going to be my friend forever. She asked me if I would go to the makeup counter with her and help on a selection and I said Yes.The make up artist was there and put all this different make up on Carol and then asked me how I liked it. I said I didn’t that it was too much stuff on her face. He said you must be really good friends to be so honest and I looked at my watch and said we have been friends for 20 minutes,he could not believe it.That was the start of a friendship that I will never forget.I will truly miss her.

Ronna, thank you so much for your kind words about my mom. I have a feeling she was probably looking for clothes for me, as she always did!

I have known Carol since I was 6 years old. We lived on the same street in Detroit at opposite corners. I would ride my bike down to her corner, hop off, then she would get on my bike and ride down to my corner. Our fathers were waiting and helping us. I lost contact with her when we moved to Chicago. I'm sorry for your loss.

“ I have know Carol since I was 12 years old. We moved in the upper flat of the 2 family where she lived in the lower flat with her grandparents, father and brother. We had a lot of fun together as kids and had stayed in touch all these years. I am so terribly sorry for your loss

I met Carol in 1966 when I walked across the street in oak park. She was pregnant with Robert. I always remember Robert's birthday. I loved Carol for over 52 years. We always laughed and had fun. I'm so sorry for your loss I will miss Carol. I know how she loved her family. She will be missed by all!

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Carol. I met Carol from my mother, who played Mah Jongg with her in Florida on Tuesdays and Thursday's. When she moved to Wynmoor, I also played with her Carol even contacted me in West Bloomfield to see if she could be a sub in my local game.

I hope she didn't suffer.
