HEBREW MEMORIAL PARK CEMETERY

Age 94, of West Bloomfield, died September 8, 2020.

Mrs. Feldman was an avid reader and read the encyclopedia at the age of 4. A patron of the arts, she attended Wayne State University at the age of 42 and worked as an art dealer with her husband and owned an art gallery with world-renown artists.

She loved classical music, opera, the theatre, art museums and played bridge and canasta. She loved reading the daily newspaper and doing the crossword puzzles.

Also an athlete, Cecelia played tennis and enjoyed running, walking, and shopping.

She was kind and everyone she met loved her and she managed to touch each of their lives in a positive way and it made her one of the best moms. Funny, philanthropic and Brilliant, she was kind and a friend to all.

Beloved wife to the late I. Irving Feldman of Blessed Memory.

Devoted mother of Dr. Steven (Karen) Feldman, Joanne (Jeffrey) Zussman, Ellen (Dr. Robert) Boorstein and the late Bruce Feldman of Blessed Memory.

Loving grandmother of Melissa Feldman, Zoe (Matt) Jantzen, Zack (Leslie Dolchin Boorstein) Boorstein, David (Michelle Franck Boorstein) Boorstein.

Proud great-grandmother of Madeline (Fiance, Sam Reich) Schildkraut, Eli Schildkraut, Jonah Schildkraut, Cooper Boorstein, Isla Boorstein, Lucy Jantzen and Juliet Jantzen.

Treasured daughter to the late Leo and the late Lilly Spector.

Dear sister and sister-in-law to the late Edna Minkin and the late Philip Minkin and the late Alvin Spector.

She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and a world of friends.

My Aunt Ceil. I will miss you so much. You touched the lives of so many, including mine. You were always there for me during my time taking care of my mother and after I lost Seymour. You always gave me words of encouragement. I am thankful for the times we were together and our talks on the phone. Love you! Karen
