“ I met Chana in August of 1968

She had just been married a short while and there was a toddler Bennie crawling around. Her faith was enthusiastic and inspiring. She had no demands on others or her husband, my dear chavrusa Reb Aryeh. She was happy with her lot and made the simplest foods appear as a feast. She seemed so level headed and content with life. I was glad for Aryeh that he had found an appropriate intellectual and emotional partner to carry out his life with. I am saddened for him and for the whole family.
