“ My Aunt Cheryl was with me from the day I was born. We were only some 10 years apart. I loved my aunt more than I even realized. Every time I hugged her I felt such acceptance such warmth such love from her. I think she adored me. I know she thought I was nuts with all my stuff from age 0 to 25. She was a great sounding board and I could have talks with her that I simply could not have with my own parents I miss her contagious laugh. Her wonderful this is who I am and I don't give a damn if you like it or not attitude. She had more self confidence than any woman I have ever known and I loved her for that chutzpah. I am very much like her and very proud of it. Rest in peace my beautiful aunt. I will do good in this world in your honor.

Dear Edelstein Family, It's been so many years since I met Cheryl and Toma because our boys David & Jeremy, became best buds with Marc & Eric when we moved to West Bloomfield in 1985. Our daughter Erica was friends with the boys as well and Lisa was part of that friendship as well. Our boys spent lots of time at Edelsteins and their boys at our home. David, Jeremy and our daughter Erica, as well as myself, had dinner with Eric two weeks ago when we were in visiting from FL. Unfortunately, Marc and his wife were unable to join us. Eric told us at dinner that Cheryl was in palliative hospice care at that time. Our family was, saddened to hear that she had passed last on Saturday.
The loss of your beautiful wife Toma, your loving mother Marc (Carin), Eric (Tracey) and Lisa and your loving grandmother, Dana, Eli and Drew, is so overwhelming at this trying time. Keep her close to your heart and remember all the wonderful times you all shared together and talk about them often, to each other, that will bring much comfort to you all.
Cheryl is now a shining star in the sky that will guide each one of you from above and will keep her arms around each one of you, tightly every single day. Always remember that someday, each of you, will meet up again, and life will begin as if no time had ever passed! With Much Sympathy in your loss. The Stoller Family, Carol, Jeff, David, Jeremy & Erica
