“ My wife Paula and I were so shocked and saddened to learn of Cynthia's passing. We became friends while she worked at Boeing. The world lost a bright and beautiful light with her departure. May her family and friends feel the peace of God's healing presence during this most difficult time.

“ What a tragic loss to all who knew her. Cynthia was a shining example of how to be a true friend. I will never forget how you drove to Illinois to support Alexa and attend her concerts. You are missed. Prayers of peace to her family and friends.

“ We would like to express our deepest condolences to the family during this time of transition. We pray that The Comforter's embrace will minister to each of you. I often told Cynthia that she would do great exploits for the cause of Christ... May the light of Christ that she reflected continue to burn bright. She is loved. -Marcus & Tonya Goins & Family

“ Oh my sweet Cynthia! Words cannot describe how shocked and heartbroken I am at your passing. I will always hold near and dear to my heart our road trip for Kabbetz; where the tire blew and you were determined to change it yourself, if not for how close we were to the side of the road. And then when we finally got to Kabbetz, we missed all the excitement of the girl getting bit by the snake! What a weekend. I will miss you, sooo much my dear. All my love,

“ Cynthia and I worked together at COSI for many years. We were together in the Floor Faculty, working Camp-Ins, and in the Call Center. I remember how relieved I was seeing in the Call Center on my first day there. Her smile and warmth were a huge comfort, even though she was so much younger than me. She had a warmth and innocence to her that made her easy to love. It's hard to believe someone who brought such joy to the world can slip away so young. I hope you found peace, sweet Cynthia. You are loved now and always.

“ I was shocked to hear the news this morning of Cynthia passing. Though we may have only interacted with one another a few times, she was always upbeat and with a smile. Even if brief, I'm glad I had a chance to get to know her. I recall a conversation we had one evening at a bar a few of us would go to after work. I was telling her about my moving situation at that time as I was considering a new place downtown but the drive to work would be roughly 40 minutes. She told me she live just west of downtown and her drive was close to 50 minutes everyday to work but she enjoyed that drive because it was her time to have some alone time, to get away from the work, the world and to just reflect. Whether it was listening to music or just getting lost in her own thoughts, she made that drive sound as if it was a better part of her day while at first looked at it as an inconvenience. In that moment she reminded me of perspective, we can look at a situation negatively or we can make the best of a situation and make it a better part of our day. My condolences to Cynthia's family and friends, you're in my prayers.

“ I never had the privilege of meeting Cynthia, but my son, Chris Scott, knew her from her days at COSI. They were very good friends who kept in touch after Cynthia's life took her in another direction. I feel as though I knew her gentle soul, from what Chris shared with me. Cynthia visited Chris at COSI the Saturday before her passing, I'm sure, because he made her laugh and lifted her up. I'm so glad Chris was there for her. Chris misses you deeply, Cynthia. You are now his angel in heaven. I trust you to take good care of him. To the loved ones Cynthia leaves behind, treasure her memory always. Keep her in your hearts and she will never truly be gone. Please know you are all in my prayers. "Blessed is he who mourns, for he will be comforted. Matthew 5:4 Love & Blessings, Loree Scott
