“ When I think of my uncle Danny, I smile a big smile. Always a joker with a great sense of humor. Even our friends in Southfield remember his comedy and that thick accent. He had to step up as a young man to lead the family once his father Abraham passed away. He told me how he had to stand up for his younger siblings,, especially brother Gerry in Glasgow and keep them out of trouble. Danny took on the role of patriarch and really never let it go. He is now with the whole Matafsky family and no doubt telling jokes about all of us. .May they all Rest in Peace.
