“ I knew Danny in high school, he was smart, funny, cute and quite the track star. I am so very sorry to hear of his passing.

“ I was only Dan's tax consultant/preparer but had some very good talks with him . Dan was kind and had a great laugh. He also absorbed and was quick to understand, trust, and put things into perspective. Always smiling. I asked him I think last year at tax time if he was doing ok because of a moment or a look he had while he was at my office and he he just said, "Yeah, yeah all good," or similar. He said "Yeah, Yeah" often. He was positive in his attitude. He never once let on that he had any illness. So I do not know his demise. I just know that he left an impression with me. A good one. I will miss him. Rest In Peace Dan.

“ Dan worked for me in 3 different mills over the last twenty years and we were just in shock to hear such news. He was without a doubt a process expert respected by all and a disciple of six-sigma and all things continuous improvement.

His attitude and work ethic were unrivaled and he never turned down an assignment no matter the challenge. He was a colleague, a friend and we will miss him greatly.

Rest in Peace Dano.

“ I just found out about Danny's illness a couple of days ago. He was my aunt Elaine Waldbott's nephew. She had nothing but kind things to say about him. This was a real tragedy. May Danny's memory be a blessing.
