“ Hebrew Memorial Chapel created a Webcast in memory of DAVID HERSH

“ I was blessed to have worked with Dave for my entire career at Southfield. He was the “go to” guy, with a complete understanding of the inner workings of City organization and always willing to share his knowledge and experience. “Organization” was his middle name, with pages of notes and reminders all over his desk, making sure every project was efficiently completed. I have never known anyone who could proof read as meticulously as Dave. And, what a memory! I retired from the City five years ago, Dave many more, and yet he has never missed my birthday. He was truly a gem!

Love you, Dave! Be at Peace!

“ You couldn't ask for a more loyal friend and colleague! Dave had the patience of a saint and the ability to help you without your ever feeling inadequate ! We loved to solve the problems of the world and would always end with.. “but no ones asking us!” with a big laugh. RIP Dave.. the worlds lost a great man!❤️

“ Dave was one of my all-time favorite people; a brilliant, thoughtful, funny, caring, kind man who always took the time (and had the patience) to help finance-challenged wordsmiths like me. He was so respected for his depth & breadth of knowledge and beloved for his infectious sense of humor, but more than that, for his kind heart, helping so many families and kids through his untiring work with the Goodfellows and others. He was a true original, one of a kind in the very best way, and his legacy of giving to others will not be forgotten. To his family, may God comfort you and may you know no further sorrow. Rest In Peace, David.

“ Dave and I were on many committees together. He brought his insight, his knowledge and his humor and we were better off because of it. May your family wrap themselves in wonderful memories.

“ Dave was a real staple at the City of Southfield. He was always there when you needed him - and I needed him a lot and he provided it with confidence and compassion. His love for animals was no less than his love and concern for his fellow man. He will be missed by his many friends and coworkers.

“ I am so broken hearted to lose my good friend, baseball coach, mentor, Investment Club partner, SERS retiree board representative, co-worker, cow joke extraordinaire, fellow cat aficionado and always a voice of reason. He never failed to make me laugh, no matter what the situation. If it wasn't for Dave, I'd NEVER have known as much about finance (and actually like it!) as I do. He was a joy to be around and always "stepped-up-to-the-plate" when needed. Dave never judged, but he always had an opinion with lots of information to back up that opinion. He shared his knowledge willingly, but could also keep a secret. He was a man of honor and I will truly miss him and our many conversations. My husband I extend our condolences to his family and share the loss of this wonderful man.

“ It’s too bad Dave passed at a time where we can’t pay our respects by attending the funeral and shiva.
He deserves that. He was a great guy and part of our family. He will be thought of often. His memory will live on.
My heart goes out to the family.

“ So sorry to hear of his passing. Dave was a kind and gentle man with an infectious laugh and great sense of humor. Surely by now he has brought a smile to the face of G-d, Himself. He leaves a giant hole in the hearts of our Southfield retiree group.
Rest in peace, dear friend.

Sending love, peace and condolences to the entire Hersh family. Dave and my husband Jim worked together at the City of Southfield for over two dozen years. They had a wonderful friendship, as well. Jim always admired Dave's work ethic, attention to detail, and his kindness to others, whether on the job--or with his charitable projects--which were prolific. He made Jim's work life easier and joyful (they shared so much humor together). David had already retired from the City when Jim became ill. He visited Jim in the hospital many times, even though we both knew, Dave was having health issues of his own at that time. Dave even played an important role in Jim's funeral, sharing the humorous times at the gathering afterwards--and making us all laugh when we needed it so much. I thank God for allowing us the time we had on earth with Dave. I thank the Hersh family for sharing Dave's funeral by webcam. Keep sharing the happy memories with each other and with friends.
