“ Debbi was a few years older when I was in Jr High and she took me under her wing. We became great friends for several years and I learned a lot from her. She taught me how to interact with boys cause I had no clue and that made me look cool. I remember having sleepovers at her house and she showed me how to draw girls' faces and how to put on makeup. Once she met her future husband Michael, we didn't hang out as much but I have fond memories of the things we did as teens. RIP pretty Debra.

I just watched the funeral online, as I was unable to be there Tuesday. The tributes to Deborah were beautiful and true to the happy, beautiful woman I remember on the occasions that we were together. She really was a bright light. May she rest in peace, and may her memory provide joy, once the pain of her loss isn't so new. She left a wonderful legacy of many children and grandchildren and sisters and family who loved her so dearly.

“ Dear Bonnie and Morry, and the entire extended family...may this loss be the last one for your families for a long time to come. Beyond that wish, appropriate words are hard to generate, to properly express one's sentiments as an outside observer, who has seen a fraction of what your families have been facing for the past several years. May all of you now be allowed to enjoy the pleasures of life that all of us pray for...good health, happiness, and the time to enjoy the Nachas of children and grandchildren. May your families be comforted by G-d amongst the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem. Awmeyn.
