“ Debi and I had some wonderful discussions about books that we'd read and loved, especially those by Gregory Maguire who wrote Wicked. When she spoke with me it felt like I was the only person in the room...such special quality...such a special person.

Debi will be deeply missed by all of us. As we say in Hebrew: חבל על דאבדין ולא משתכחין - a pity on the ones we lose but not forgotten.

The first time I met Debi, she made me feel so welcome and comfortable at her home during a cast party - a very special person.
You have our deepest sympathy. Sandi & Steve Krupa

Dear Udi, Kayla and Leah, My deepest sympathy and condolences for you and family. Debi was pure delight, her smile lit up the beach for me and all that were lucky enough to have known Debi. From the moment you moved in I felt a connection with Debi and always enjoyed my time spent with her. May her memory be but a blessing for you and all of us.
