CHAPEL SERVICE: MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2024, AT 2:00 P.M. HEBREW MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

***THE CHAPEL SERVICE WILL BE WEBCAST AND AVAILABLE TO VIEW ON THIS WEB PAGE ***

Dina Brodsky, 95, of Franklin, died February 10, 2024. Dina was the beloved wife of the late Herman Brodsky; cherished mother of Ann (Dr. David) Rosenberg, Helene Brodsky Brody, Jeffrey (Stacy) Brodsky, Dr. Marc (Dr. Susan) Brodsky; loving grandmother of Dr. Barry (Dr. Sharon) Rosenberg, Steve (Heather) Rosenberg, Dr. Kevin (Dr. Michelle) Rosenberg, Rochelle Leigh Rosenberg (Daniel Ben-Zadok), Stuart (Amy) Brody, Rachel Brody, Brian (Natalie) Brodsky, Dr. Tamara (Sam) Lerer, Dr. Danielle (Austin) Frieder, Michael Brodsky (Sarah Schonberg), Cantor Olivia Brodsky; treasured great-grandmother (Bubbie Dina) of Drew, Lauren, and Carly Rosenberg, Brooke, Hannah, and Julia Rosenberg, Nathan, Joseph, Naomi, and Ariella Rosenberg, Leo, Levi, and Golda Ben-Zadok, Lilly, Evie, and Allie Brody, Noa Brodsky, Ryan and Nolan Lerer, Axel Frieder, Ari Brodsky. Adored daughter of the late Louis and Rose Konikof.

Dina was born and grew up in Chicago. She met the love of her life, Herman, at Mendelson's Resort in South Haven on July 4, 1949. After dancing to “Some Enchanted Evening” they dated long distance, got engaged New Year’s Eve 1949, and were married March 19, 1950. They were married for 54 years.

Dina’s husband and children always came first. The Jewish holidays for Dina, such as Pesach Seders, were fun, participatory events, where each family member—both adults and children—had an important role. Dina made every family milestone a celebration: for her special birthdays she planned trips, inviting all family members to celebrate with her. On other family simchas and milestones, she traveled to share in the festivities.

Truly a “Woman of Valor,” she was known as the kindest, most generous, and thoughtful person. Her and Herman’s philanthropic endeavors within the Jewish community, both here and in Israel, gave her tremendous fulfillment. Throughout their lives, they supported many organizations such as Congregation Shaarey Zedek, Jewish Federation of Metro Detroit, Hillel Day School, the Zekelman Holocaust Center, Tamarack Camps, Frankel Jewish Academy, Jewish Theological Seminary, Yeshiva Beth Yehuda, Friendship Circle, University of Michigan Hillel, the Berman Theater at The J, National Council of Jewish Women, and Hadassah. While happy to help those in need through contributions, she was equally generous helping friends and acquaintances who fell on hard times.

Dina also had an enormous circle of friends. She loved spending time with her girlfriends, both in Florida and in Detroit, regarding them as the sisters she never had. Although her appearance was always elegant and stylish, most importantly, a genuine sweetness emanated from Dina; she was even more beautiful on the inside than she was on the outside.

“ Dear Ann, Helene, Jeff, Marc and families,

I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your mom. She was a one of a kind lady who I adored. I have so many memories of your mom that I could share, but here are a few that are distinct in my memory.

First, she was always dressed to the nines and looked beautiful plus she always had great cars. I remember she used to drive Marc and I in her beautiful car to Dexter Davison to get some goodies. It was such an adventure!

I also remember Marc and I playing in the rain looking for worms and getting stuck in the mud behind your house. She asked us “What in the world are you doing?” She then proceeded to help us get out of our mess and get cleaned up.

My parents loved your mom (and Dad). My mom especially enjoyed playing canasta with her.

*My heart goes out to all of you
Sending lots of love*
