“ My name is Adele Nodler and I am a volunteer with the Jewish Family Services. It was my honor to become a friend of Mrs. Rosenberg. I began visiting with her a short while ago on a weekly basis. During our time together I learned a great deal from her through our conversations. She was so very proud of her wonderful children and grandchildren and newest addition to her family. She shared many photos with me which brought a beautiful, bright smile to her face. May her memory be for a blessing to all of you.
Fondly,
Adele
