“ I was so sad to hear of Dorothy's passing today from my daughter, Molly. Because I'm no longer a part of the family, I am not privy to this kind of information. While I was a member of the family, married to her sister's step-son, Dorothy was always completely kind, generous and welcoming to me. I am/was not a part of the Orthodox community, but she respected me and my Judaism, my life choices and even my humor at times, as I respected her and hers. She saw beyond all that. I have fond memories of her whole family: Uncle Joe, Mindy and Miriam in particular. May her memory be a blessing.....
