“ My mother, Edith Katz who died four years ago first met Dorothy in 1944. They were in the Cadet Nurse Corps together at Brooklyn Jewish Hospital. They remained friends for the next 70 years. They would send each other birthday cards around the same time since they both had birthdays the same week. They both lived into their 90's.

Throughout the years they would see each other at reunions. Eventually, they stopped having the New York reunions. The Florida reunions lasted a little longer.

During the last few years of my mother's life, I would speak to Dorothy to update her about my mother and the family situation. I continued to update the situation for a couple of years after her death. I last spoke to Dorothy a year ago, the day after her birthday.

She will be missed.

“ Sharing meals and playing scrabble were always our favorite activities! Seeing the joy on Bubba's face when we watched Benny Goodman and Elvis videos was priceless!!
