“ I will always remember him as a sweet and gentle soul. I was a good friend of his son Louis and spent many a day at their house as a child. His father was unfailingly welcoming to me whenever I saw him. He had an uncommonly thoughtful way of communicating with children. May he rest in peace.

I will always remember the knock down drag out racket ball games Joyce & Marvin played. It was sensational!

I grew up with the Weckstein kids. But also, my dad graduated with Marvin in the Wayne State Medical School class of 1953. I used to stare at and memorize the class photo. My dad always admired that Marvin had "zeitsfleisch" or "sitting flesh" which I understood to mean that he had the ability to sit and study for long long hours. I'm not sure but I think Marvin may be the last of the class of 1953. My sympathies to Marvin's family on the passing of this great man.
