“ We send warm condolences to Allen, Marci, and Terry, plus their spouses and kids on the loss of your wonderful mom and grandma. She was a dynamic and loving spirit - evident whenever we were lucky enough to enjoy her company. May time help bring solace and may her memory be alive with you all, for evermore. Warmly, Dan Weisberg and David Klingenger

“ I have been far from FB since the war began....taking my intake in measured steps. My sister Ruthe informed me of Edith's passing. Since then I find my mind wandering to images of that most unique of souls who was privileged to know in my teenage years, and later as well. I know of no one else with such a magnificent blend of grace and stature, while simultaneously being "one of the gang". So quiet, yet the first one heard. So deep in the intensity of the more hurting sides of life due to a precious sensitivity, but at the same time always donning a smile that warms the heart of each one she met. Truly a magnificent soul who will be dearly missed. Our love to the children and family of Edith, ה"ע.

“ I consider Edith a cherished friend. Our friendship began when I became connected with the Holocaust Memorial Center. Edith, of course, a survivor thanks to the kindertransport. Myself, the son of a holocaust survivor of 5 concentration camps. I always looked forward to hearing the stories of her experiencing the brutality of Kristallnacht and ultimately escaping to America. She was always eloquent in her words, a beautiful story-teller and a beautiful soul. I will always remember her and may her memory endure as a blessing.
