“ Mr. Traurig was a man of honesty, integrity and courage beyond belief. He was a true lover of yiddishkeit and lived his life to prove it. His love for his children and wife, Mitzi, was so beautiful. Their dedication to each other and respect was a wonderful example to their children, They glowed when they spoke of their children. He will be solely missed, but my memories of him will always be with me.

“ To: Jeffery Traurig and families: Sorry to hear of the passing of Ed Traurig. He was a good friend of the Young Israel community and my late father, Rabbi Gordon(z"l) had been fond of him throughout his serving of President of the shul and his many years of membership. I myself remember him very well and enjoyed an association with him.
I feel a deep loss. Ha'Makom Yenachem Esschem B'Soich Avelei Tziyon Yerushalayim.

“ I still remember Eddie Traurig from our days at Young Israel Of Oak Woods. What a nice guy who befriended everyone. I still can see him chasing his young son Jeffrey who was mischievous. Always giving poor Eddie heart failure. Young Jeffrey would be getting in trouble and of course Eddie would have to bail him out. He and Mitzi were warm hearted people who would easily start a conversation with the younger generation. He will surely be missed and his Neshama should have an Aliya. My heartfelt condolences go to Debby, Jeffrey, and Rachel and their families.
