“ I remember Elaine from so many lifelong Jewish learning classes around town over the years, at Midrasha and other venues. May her memory be a blessing.

“ I just came from the funeral. What a tribute to this wonderful woman. She was blessed with a loving family who appreciated everything about her.
What a Bubbie! Yasher Koach to all of you who spoke with such love, tenderness and humor. Your Bubbie did an amazing job raising her kids in a beautiful way, so that your parents would have a good model. Her role as a Bubbie is a teaching moment to all. (I will try to emulate some of it. . . maybe the Chanukah gifts!) You are all blessed to have been under the spell of a very special woman. May her memory be for a blessing.

“ Elaine showed us the bright side of life after suffering the loss of Sam at such a young age. Elaine remained connected with everything and everyone. She was devoted to Shaarey Zedek. Elaine and Sam were blessed with 4 terrific children. Each one is a superstar. We were all lucky to know the Krohns.

“ I have so many fond memories of Elaine. Our families were very close and I was very close with David growing up. I had wonderful times at their cottage on Belle River and I will never forget Chazzanim classes at their home on Manor. My mother took hebrew classes with Elaine and they had so much fun practicing and calling each other Geveret. She always had a smile a laugh and a purpose.

“ Aunt Elaine was always in my life growing up with my Uncle Zavi and 4 cousins David, Judy, Janet, and Debbie. I still remember the house they lived in on Laurel Valley Drive. My sister Barbara and I were always scared of their boxer dog named Kelev (Kelli for short) who was sweet and showed her teeth which Aunt Elaine always calmed us by saying that he was smiling at us. We were still scared and made Aunt Elaine lock Kelli up during our visits. In every moving pictures, now known as videos of our family had many special times with her, Uncle Zavi and the 4 cousins. Aunt Elaine was so vibrant and full of life. As an adult with a pre-scool aged daughter who had just moved back to the Detroit area, Aunt Elaine invited us over for Shabbat dinner. My daughter Leah Rose, it turned out, was not feeling great but wanted to meet Aunt Elaine who I told her so much about, but only drank grape juice and proceeded to vomit it all over Aunt Elaine's white carpet ! I was so embarrassed but Aunt Elaine was so nice and loving through out this incident. Leah Rose and I had many other Shabbat dinners with her which where less dramatic ! Even as she got older she loved her family and dear Shaarey Zedek I loved her dearly and was blessed by knowing her. May her memory be a blessing. Ruthie

“ Anna and Yale Levin remember Elaine very well. In the old days she and Samuel were movers and shakers at Shaarey Zedek. The Krohn family was always involved in every aspect of the synagog. They were models for us because we had just joined the synagog as young marrieds. Elaine was a wonderful warm woman who always made her family and Shaarey Zedek a priority.
