“ So sad to hear the world has lost such a kind and gentle soul. Our thoughts and prayers to Laura and Russ and their families. She was a joy to be around and had a heart as big as anyone we've known. May she rest in peace. XOXO Cousin Louie and Michelle

“ I have some lovely memories of cousin Lainie and Laura and Russ, spending time at their home as a little girl and then later as a teen. Lainie always treated me as a close family member with the lovingkindness extended to those blessed to be in her circle. I always felt at home with her <3 Sorry to have lost touch and heartbroken to hear her past few years have been layered with much suffering and discomfort. Sending love to Laura and Russ and Judy and all who love Lainie.

“ Lanie welcomed me into the Grodsky family over 21 years ago. She always made my children and I feel so loved. May SHE Rest In Peace.

“ Elaine came into our life over 18 years ago when Laura married my son Jay. She has been such a wonderful addition to our family and a super grandmother to Oliver and Ella. It's been 11 years since we lost grandmother Kitty and I'm sure they will rekindle their close friendship in Heaven. we grieve and mourn with Laura and the family. G Ray Hamby

“ Elaine was my beautician for more then 40 years! She listened to my stories with a kind open heart! My family was like her family! She adored her grandchildren and seemed to always greet me with a hug and a kiss! I know her last few years were quite difficult and would love to think she is resting in peace and eating a steak with her fruit smoothie!!! Love you for making me beautiful and will miss your warm smile!

“ Laura, I just saw this and my heart sunk. You know your mom took me under her cute wing and guided me to become a hairdresser. She was the nicest girl and just adored you and your kids. I know she will take rest for a few and then get socializing in heaven. Xoxo the other Laura
