

ELIZABETH SANDERS

December 21, 2012

Age 90, of North Carolina and formerly of Michigan, died December 19, 2012.

Mrs. Sanders was a Holocaust survivor and member of Sharit Haplatah. A seamstress and dress maker, she taught at MacNamara Skill Center in Detroit, assisting Welfare participants in gaining a trade.

She was a member of both the Holocaust Memorial Center in Farmington Hills and in Washington, D.C.

She also supported a large variety of pet organizations.

The funeral service will be held at Hebrew Memorial Chapel.

A link will be provided on Friday for the webcast of the funeral service

Family Info:

Beloved wife to the late Ignac Sanders.

Devoted mother of Eva (Tom) Hawley and Wendy (Richard) Weinberg.

Proud grandmother of David Hawley, Todd (Fatin) Hawley, Heather (Alan) Austin, Tamara (Rabbi Nevo) Zuckerman, Joshua (Amanda) Weinberg and Adam Weinberg.

Adoring great-grandmother of Ryan and Gabriela Hawley, Hannah and Asher Austin, Naftali, Avital, Alya, Shmuel, Advah and Gedalia Zuckerman and Eli Weinberg.

Dear sister of Repe (the late Leslie) Cohen and the late Shimon Schik.
She is also the cherished cousin of Jack Farkas and the late Simon Farkas and the dear friend of many.

Mrs. Sanders is predeceased by those family members who perished during the Holocaust including her daughter, the late Lilkah Sajovic; siblings, the late Bertzie, the late Moshie, the late Irina, the late Lola, the late Ava and the late Yossil Schick.

Tribute Wall

“ Hebrew Memorial Chapel created a Tribute Video in memory of ELIZABETH SANDERS

Hebrew Memorial Chapel - December 21, 2012 at 12:00 AM