“ Dear family of Ellen,
I apologize for the latest of this note, but have just found the news of Ellen's passing. My deepest sympathies to all of you. Ethel-Ellen was our classmate at the Mary A. Burnham School for Girls in Massachusetts in 1966 and was so special. She brought so much to that group and to me--wonderfully different background, outlook and knowledge--that she changed the way everyone looked at the world. She loved her violin deeply, my first experience as a teenager with someone so passionate about her calling and talent. What a special human being, and we were so fortunate to have even a relatively brief time with her. Ruth Robert Kath, MAB '66, Prof. Emerita of German, Luther College, Decorah, Iowa.

“ Dear Paul and Ellen's family, when I was a new teacher at University Liggett School, Ellen taught violin in my classroom. We became friends and I visited her when she bought her house in Huntington Woods. I am not sure what caused our drifting apart but I was and will always be a big fan of Ellen's. I am profoundly sorry to see that she has left us. May her memory be for blessing.

“ Dear Paul and all members of your and Ellen's family:

As Ellen's dear neighbor for many years, I am in shock to learn of her death. I am so very sorry for your profound loss and offer my deepest sympathy to you and your and Ellen's families. I spoke with Ellen not long before my trip to Australia and New Zealand, from which I returned Monday night. I was looking forward to talking with her about it. We often spoke about our experiences in life, Jewish and otherwise, and I will miss her. May Ellen's memory be for a blessing to all who knew and loved her.

*With warmest regards,
Roz Schindler (10075 Lincoln)*

“ I send my condolences to Pinchas and the rest of the family. Though I didn't see her much, I was always so happy to see Ellen. She was sweet to me and I am sad.
